

The Historical Society of the United States District Court for the Southern District of Indiana cordially invites members of the bench, bar and public to share in the observance of the

Centennial Anniversary of the United States Courthouse

Special Events:

Cornerstone Rededication

Tuesday, March 25, 2003, 2:30 p.m.

The ritual rededication of the cornerstone on the steps of the Courthouse.

Gala Celebration and Dinner

Thursday, June 12, 2003, 6:30 p.m.

An evening of formal observances of this milestone, including dinner at the Indiana State Museum, with an address by Chief Judge Joel M. Flaum of the Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit.
(Limited reservations available)

Centennial Symposium

Friday – Saturday, October 17 – 18, 2003

A scholarly discussion of federal law, legal history and historic art and architecture at the Indiana University School of Law, Indianapolis, and at the Courthouse.

Open House

Saturday, October 18, 2003

Open House at the Courthouse with building tours, a historic trial re-enactment, displays by government agencies and presentations on the history of the court and the Courthouse.

For further details & updates, visit the court's website at:

<http://www.insd.uscourts.gov/centennial>

These events are underwritten by law firm sponsors whose generous contributions are gratefully acknowledged.

Baker & Daniels • Barnes & Thornburg • Bose McKinney & Evans, LLP • Ice Miller • Krieg DeVault, LLP
Locke Reynolds, LLP • Sommer Barnard Ackerson Attorneys, PC • Bingham McHale, LLP • Wooden & McLaughlin, LLP